

Naku Stack Metal

Harri Korhonen

inno

The metal-frame version of the Naku Stack Chair offers a contemporary take on a versatile seating design. Its powder-coated steel frame provides strength and stability while preserving a balance and gentle silhouette. The chair is available with or without armrests and is designed to stack neatly when not in use.

The seat is available unupholstered or fully upholstered in fabric.

Designed for demanding public and semi-public spaces, the Naku Stack Chair fits naturally into restaurants, meeting and dining rooms, and relaxed gathering areas, where durability and balanced design are essential.
